

UGC SPONSORED REFRESHER COURSE ON LANGUAGE AND LINGUISTICS FOR THE LECTURES OF LINGUISTICS AND THE TEACHERS OF LANGUAGE PAPERS IN THE MODERN INDIAN LANGUAGES

The Department of Linguistics, Manipur University is conducting a Refresher Course from January 11 to 31, 2008 for the teachers in the Universities and colleges in the N.E. Region who are engaged in teaching Linguistics and language papers in the modern Indian Languages.

The purpose of the course is:

- a] to make the teachers in the universities and colleges who are engaged in teaching linguistics and language papers acquaint with the modern concept of language theories;
- b] to make those teachers engaged in teaching language papers without any linguistic background aware of the differences between the two approaches in the study of languages;
- c] to give opportunity for the teachers concerned right type of course required for enhancing their knowledge and concept.

Teachers working in universities and colleges having a minimum of 3 years of service, holding substantive posts and who are engaged in teaching linguistics in the Department of Linguistics and in teaching language components in the departments of Modern Indian Languages are eligible to the course. As the number of seats available for the course are limited only one teacher from a university or a college nominated by the competent authority will be selected on the basis of their seniority in the institution where the teacher is working. The authorities are, therefore, requested to nominate only one teacher from a department. Readers/Associate Professors or equivalent and above will not be considered for this course.

The last date of receipt of application form duly filled in has been fixed for November 30, 2007. Request for form received after the above date will not be entertained. TA/DA and other admissible allowances will be paid to the selected participants as per UGC norms.

All correspondences regarding the Refresher Course shall be with the Co-ordinator. Application form and other details may be downloaded from our website: www.manipuruniv.ac.in.
